

DIABETES STIGMA, SHAME AND BLAME

I feel so
stigmatized that I haven't told anyone about
my diagnosis, including my husband.

SUE, AGE 64, CANADA
PERSON WITH TYPE 2 DIABETES MELLITUS

World Health Organization

DIABETES STIGMA, SHAME AND BLAME

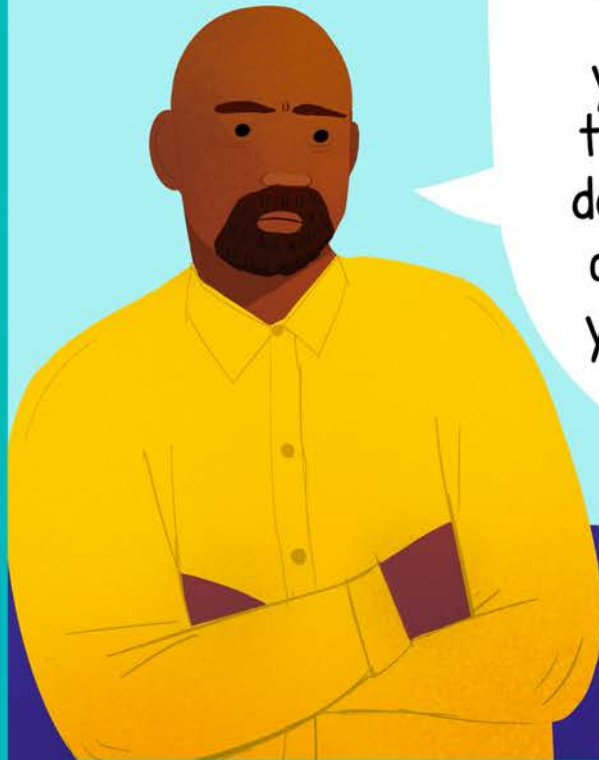

I feel so
stigmatized that I haven't told
anyone about
my diagnosis, including my husband.

SUE, AGE 64, CANADA
PERSON WITH TYPE 2 DIABETES MELLITUS

World Health Organization

DIABETES, SUGAR AND LIFESTYLE

The stigma that you got diabetes through your own doing, like you ate a lot of sugar or you were too fat.

FERDINAND, AGE 47, KENYA
PERSON WITH TYPE 2 DIABETES MELLITUS

World Health Organization

DIABETES, SUGAR AND LIFESTYLE

The stigma of it runs in families, or worse still, some people treat it as a curse.

FERDINAND, AGE 47, KENYA
PERSON WITH TYPE 2 DIABETES MELLITUS

World Health Organization